

Knowledge Organiser: YEAR 1 ART- Portraits

What I should already know:

How to draw simple lines and experiment with thickness.

How to draw simple 2D shapes.

Have an understanding about shades of colours.

How to use a range of media: pencil, crayons, felt tips, water colours and pastels.

What is a portrait?

A portrait is a painting, photograph or sculpture that represents a person.

A self-portrait is a portrait of the artist by the artist.

What are secondary colours?

Secondary colours are made from mixing primary colours together.

KEY VOCABULARY

lines shapes

primary colours

secondary colours

size

space texture control

tone

hatching

shading

stippling blending

light

dark artists

I will be learning to:

Use different media with control.

Explore primary and secondary colours.

Lighten and darken colours without using white or black paint.

Develop my knowledge of colour, shape, lines and space.

Explore the use of tone by using techniques such as: hatching, blending and stippling.

Explore textures by identifying and copying them.

Disciplinary knowledge

Why is art, art?

Understanding quality that is expressed in art.

Understanding the quality of line, colour, shape within art.

What makes this piece of art, art?

Traditional

Skills and knowledge that have been passed down through generations. Portrait usually shows features, mood and expression of a person.

Modern

A style of art that was created between the late 19th and the late 20th centuries, which includes abstract and experimental work.

Contemporary

Art that was created from 1950's to present day, which includes a variety of different techniques and materials.

